Blood Collection Sets Mark Here

Salem Red Cross blood officials were jubilant today over a record-breaking 161 pints of blood collected during Thursday's visit of the Cleveland Regional Red Cross Bloodmobile at the United Steelworkers hall on Prospect St.

Apprehensive about reaching the 125-pint quota earlier in the week because of a lag in registrations, Louis J. Raymond, chairman of the North Columbiana County Red Cross blood program, said the turnout was "completely beyond our expectations."

Revolt Nipped In Argentina

Second Attempt In Month Is Foiled

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—Military chiefs indicated Thursday night they had nipped another power bid by navy and civilian rebels who staged an abortive revolt April 2.

The armed forces and the interior ministry headed by Gen. Enrique Rauch reaffirmed their pledge to hold presidential elections scheduled for June 23. The public regarded the promises of balloting with apathy and skepticism.

The military remained on the alert, and tension continued to hang over Buenos Aires. Armed patrols roamed downtown streets as they have for the past three nights. There were unconfirmed reports that tank and anti-aircraft units had been ordered to bases near the capital.

A defense ministry communique said the latest plot was being formed by a small minority involved in psychological warfare to offset their previous defeat.

The interior ministry reported earlier that seven advisers of deposed President Arturo Frondizi had been arrested and charged with plotting a Communist revolt.

Famed Circus Aerialist Dies In 50-Foot Fall

OMAHA, Neb. (AP) Yetta Grotofent, 42, of the famed circus aerialist family, the Wallendas, died in a 50-foot fall from her slender gray pole at a Shrine Circus performance Thursday night.

She had reached the climax of her solo act and was swaying back and forth in a wide arc when, as the pole was on a back swing, Yetta suddenly tumbled backward and plummeted to her death as 4,666 spectators watched in awed silence.

She was the third member of the troupe to die in a fall in the last 16 months.

Dieter Schepp, 23, and Richard Faughnan, 29, were killed in Detroit on Jan. 30, 1962, in a high wire accident involving seven members of the troupe.

Yetta was not a member of that act.

What caused the death of the 42-year-old Yetta?

A member of the Kristensen troupe of equestrians said in a taped interview that "I think she must have passed out up there because she didn't scream or nothing."

Several other circus people said they had heard Yetta wasn't feeling well before she began her solo act.

Some spectators said the aerialist appeared to slip.

In an interview in Detroit in 1958, Yetta had said that when she was on the indoor pole "it seems so little I feel I have to

Mrs. Hobart Butcher, local Red Cross executive, joined Raymond in lauding everyone connected with the program.

Yesterday's collection exceeded the previous high of 147 pints in 1962 by 14 pints. The all-time Columbiana County high was recorded in East Palestine in 1962 when 178 pints were donated.

In addition to setting a collection record here, yesterday's turnout also established a mark of 56 "walk-ins" and another of 183 registered donors, Raymond said.

A gratifying number of the donors who had registered kept their appointments, he added.

Physicians on duty, were V. C. Hart, Richard McConnor and C. J. Lehwald.

Nurses donating their services were Mrs. Olive Crowgey, Mrs. Marie Durand, Mrs. Cornelius Monda, Mrs. Clara Corso, Mrs. Dorothy Poly, Mrs. Pat McNichol, Mrs. Emma Conway, Mrs. Marian Rance, Mrs. Marilyn Loudon, Mrs. Elizabeth Stacy, Mrs. Virginia Worman, Mrs. Grace Wade, Mrs. Chester Kridler, Mrs. Ruth Kekel, Mrs. Bertha Burrier, Mrs. Nora Sanders, Mrs. Althea Wilson, Miss Annette Lauener and Miss Nada Clough.

A group of Gray Ladies also assisted.

Mrs. Betty Monteleone replaced Mrs. Mary Oswald as recruiting chairman of nurses.

Women of the Moose provided the food, prepared the Red Cross staff dinner and managed the canteen. Mrs. Arthur Stark was chairman, assisted by Mrs. Mary Beery, Mrs. Ola House, Mrs. Vera Drotleff, Mrs. Milton Marple, Mrs. John Good, Mrs. John Dermotta, Mrs. Ann Lozier, Mrs. Earlin Yeager, Mrs. Clair Brown, Mrs. Harry Woodworth, Mrs. Harold Secrist, Mrs. Wayne Phillips and Mrs. Sadie Doyle.

Red Cross officials gave special recognition to off-duty fireman George Schmid and Mrs. J. S. Gregg and Robert Hendricks, who manned a mobile broadcasting unit to appeal for walk-ins.

The next visit of the bloodmobile to Salem will be in June. The May chapter appearance will be in Columbiana.

Few Firms Plan Early Price Hike On Steel Products

NEW YORK (AP)—Few manufacturers of steel-using items plan early markups on their products as a result of the selective price increases by steelmaking suppliers.

Most of them still are mulling over the situation or seeking more information, a spot check by The Associated Press across the country showed today.

The construction industry appeared a possible exception.

J. J. Buckley, executive vice president of the Youngstown Steel Door Co., estimated the steel price rise will cause an increase of about two per cent in his company's prices.

In New Brunswick, N.J., Tri-angle Conduit & Cable Co. served notice of an indirect price rise on steel conduit used to enclose electrical wiring in buildings.

In Atlanta, Georgia's Highway Department director, Jim Gillis, said the steel price increase will

Money for New Roads Okayed By Ohio Senate

Legislators Also Pass Appropriations For Safety Dept.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio will be building another big batch of roads in the next two years.

That became certain Thursday when the Senate passed unanimously a House-approved bill appropriating nearly $750 million to build:

One-hundred and forty miles of interstate highways, 44 miles of major urban highways, 170 miles of primary roads, 140 miles of secondary roads and 2,000 miles of resurfacing present highways.

There are a few minor items to clean up before the bill reaches the desk of Gov. James A. Rhodes for his signature. One is House approval of a Senate amendment to pay up nearly $10 million in back money due the Public Employees Retirement System by both the Highway and the Highway Safety departments.

The Senate also passed unanimously and returned to the House for concurrence in amendments a bill appropriating more than $28 million for operating the Highway Safety Department—including the Highway Patrol—for the next two years.

A third appropriation bill, the biggest of all, still is under study by the House Finance Committee which expects to be able to have it ready for the House floor in another two weeks. It is the general budget bill calling for nearly $1.3 billion to operate the state for the next two years. When the House finishes with it, the Senate expects to take another month to give the big money bill another fine-tooth-comb treatment.

If the general appropriations bill can be sent to the governor's desk by early June, the legislative session probably will end soon thereafter.

The two houses have named their representatives to a joint conference committee which will try to iron out differences on a bill to create a state board of re-

North Lima Trucker Hurt In Accident

A North Lima truck driver was injured, apparently not seriously when his vehicle crashed into the rear of a disabled tractor-trailer this morning at 4:30 on Route 7, about one mile south of Route 46.

The extent of injuries to Robert D. Zwinger, 29, of the Woodworth-New Springfield Rd., are unknown. He told state police after the mishap he was going to a Youngstown doctor for an examination.

The Lisbon post of the State Highway Patrol said Zwinger's truck hit a semi-truck operated by Lee W. Johnson, 26, of Farrell, Pa., stalled on the pavement.

Zwinger was cited for failing to stop within the assured clear distance and Johnson for failing to display a warning device on a disabled vehicle.

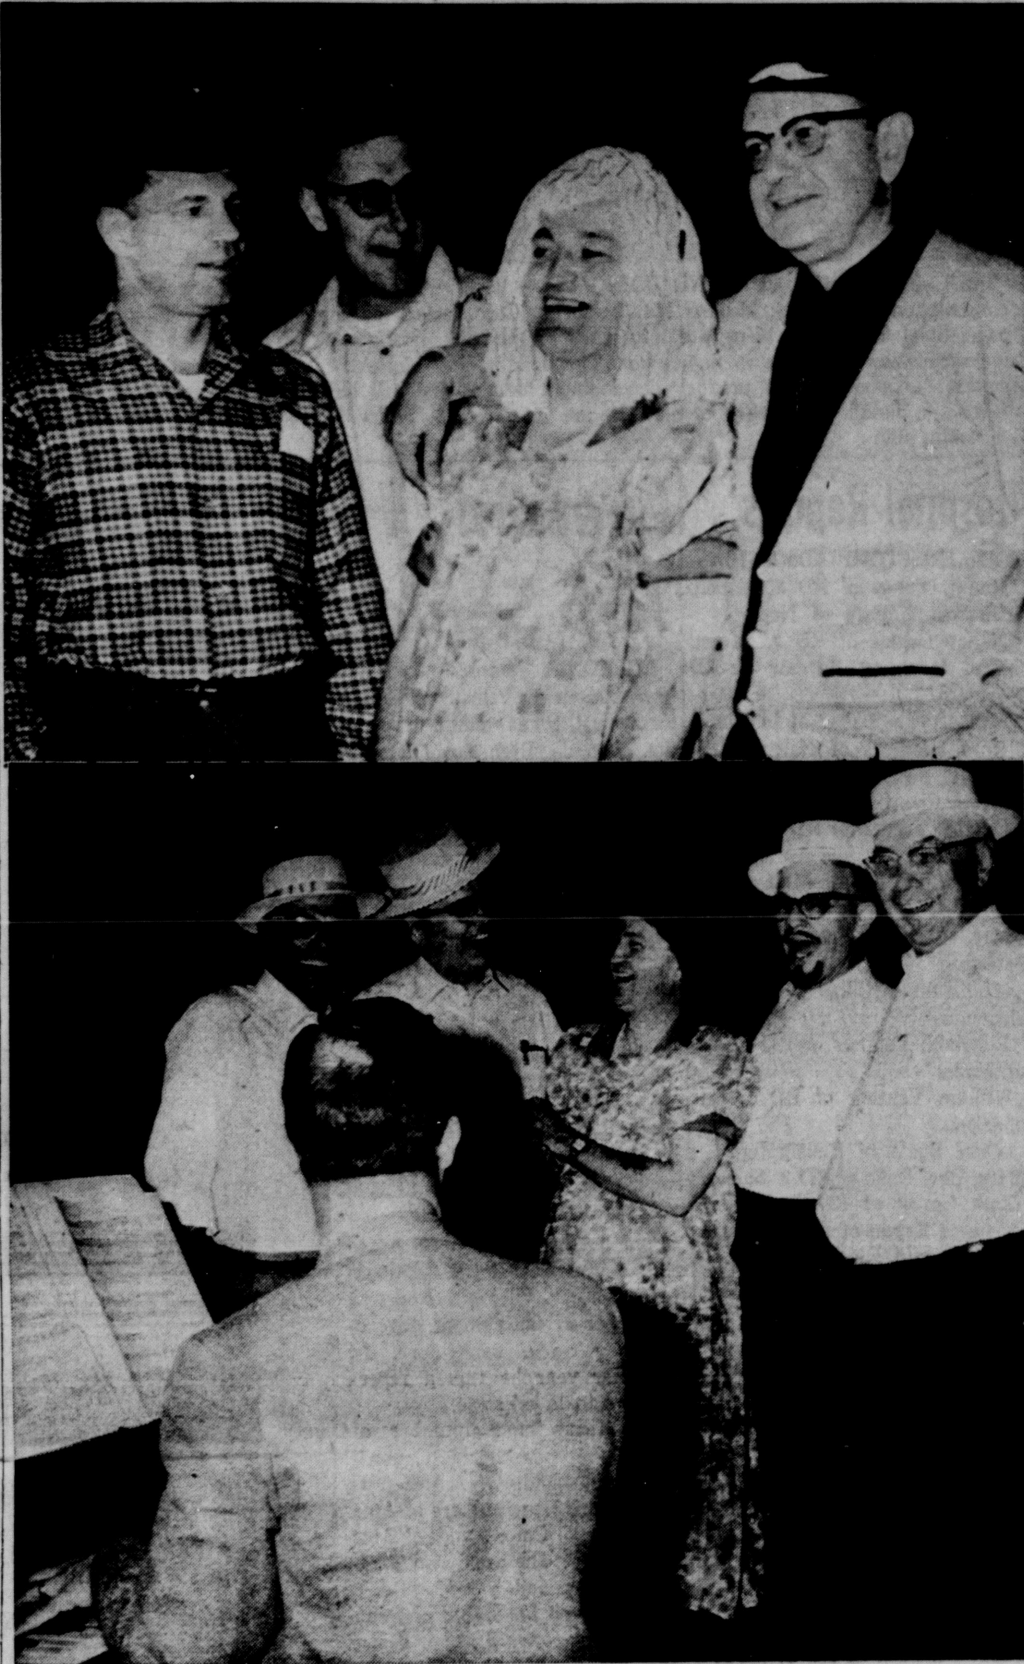

No one was injured in a collision of two autos Thursday at 7 p.m. on State Route 170, more than three miles north of East Liverpool.

The patrol said a car driven by James E. Beaver, 20, of RD 2, East Liverpool struck the rear of another driven by Ray L. Collins, 41, of Chester, W. Va., as Collins was turning.

Beaver was cited for unsafe operation.

County School Boards Discuss Legislation

Legislation pertaining to education, pending action by the general assembly in Columbus, was given a thorough airing by 85 Columbiana County school officials who met jointly Thursday night at Wellsville Junior High School.

The session was attended by representatives of 11 boards of education in the county, including Salem's, plus the County Board of Education.

It was designed to acquaint area legislators with local sentiment on educational bills pending before the Ohio Legislature. Judging by the applause when a question was raised on holding another joint meeting when the legislature convenes again in two years, the session was a big hit.

Clarence Wetzel of Columbiana County and Robert Longworth of Carroll County state representatives, reviewed legislation pertaining to schools.

In brief remarks, Wetzel said he favors an increase in sales tax from three to four cents and a hike of one cent in cigarette taxes. The revenue would be earmarked for education. Such legislation has not been introduced, but there was a general feeling that it would be soon.

Schools have first priority on any extra money over and above the governor's budget, Wetzel informed the group. He added that he will vote on school legislation as directed by county boards of education.

U.S. Keeping Close Watch On Caribbean

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. patrol planes and ships have intensified their watchfulness over Caribbean waters between Cuba and Central and South America, it was learned today.

These patrols, including some aircraft operating out of the Panama Canal Zone, keep tabs on all cargo and passenger type ships outbound from Cuba.

Of particular interests are 18 Soviet built trawlers believed operated by the Cubans. The Navy makes it its business to know where these are at all times.

When it is determined a ship may be heading for Latin America, the government concerned is notified. Thus, that government would be in position to send its own naval forces to halt any vessel suspected of carrying arms or men—or to ask for U.S. aid.

The Navy is especially alert for any concentrations of shipping in Cuban harbors, indicating an armed expedition might be gathering.

Authorities feel it would be virtually impossible for any kind of a serious military threat to be mounted from Cuba without being spotted in plenty of time to be intercepted.

The major problem lies in halting any Cuban subversives who might be tricked into Latin America aboard small craft.

There are literally thousands of

Reneged on Vow To Launch 2nd Cuban Invasion

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Dr. Jose Miro Cardona, stepping down as leader of Cubans in exile, charges that President Kennedy has given Fidel Castro absolute immunity in the execution of Khrushchev's sinister designs.

In a 6,500-word resignation letter that split the Cuban Revolutionary Council apart, Miro accused Kennedy of backing out on a promise of a second invasion and of liquidating "the struggle for Cuba."

And he warned that the Soviet premier, day by day, will increase his army of local Communists in the Western Hemisphere until a terrifying catastrophe develops.

Nine Members Quit

In support of Miro and his stand, nine members of the 16-man council quit during a 4½-hour session that followed Miro's departure.

No successor was chosen to head the council, which was formed with U.S. government support to launch the futile invasion at the Bay of Pigs. But Dr. Manuel Antonio de Varona, Miro's right-hand man, said he would seek to strengthen the council by wooing more of the many exile groups into its ranks. And he said every effort would be made to gain U.S. help for the Cuban exile cause.

Miro, first prime minister of the Castro regime who later defected, said Kennedy told him at a meeting in the White House April 10, 1962, nearly a year after the first invasion, that the problem of Cuba was essentially a military one and that the council should contribute the major contingent of soldiers.

Would Lead Battle

I left the White House with the assurance that the liberation of Cuba would follow soon with Cubans at the vanguard in battle," he said. He indicated that this was to be in connection with the Cuban blockade that President Kennedy proclaimed Oct. 22, 1962.

Later, he said, U.S. policy on Cuba shifted suddenly, violently and unexpectedly "and the struggle for Cuba was in the process of being liquidated by the government."

The United States was the victim of a master move" by the Soviets, Miro declared.

During the negotiations that followed the blockade, he asserted, Khrushchev maintained his attack and subversion base in the Caribbean, strengthened Castro's military capacity to the point where he could smash an uprising of the Cuban people, and immobilized "the United States and the rest of the Western Hemisphere."

These, in all their crude reality, are the facts," Miro said.

Promises Liquidated

The repeated assurances, the constantly renewed promises, have been suddenly liquidated."

The White House said there would be no comment. Miro had delivered a copy of his document to the State Department, which called it highly inaccurate and distorted."

Miro said the State Department attack forced him to make his document public.

Experts on Latin America are not aware of the disaster overtaking the whole continent," Miro said. They assure us that the panacea for all the social ills of our countries lies in the Alliance for Progress program."

The success of that program, he contended, will depend on the eradication of the Communist regime in Cuba.

Replying to contentions that an invasion of Cuba might lead to a nuclear holocaust, Miro argued that Khrushchev would not provoke an armed conflict "because Cuba is outside the Soviet zone of influence."

Permanent Revolution Goal

Permanent revolution is his goal," Miro said. Venezuela is already up in arms by Castro's order. Colombia is torn by Castro's order. Argentina is beset by constant convulsions and the Marxist ferment in all the rest of the nations is the terrifying forerunner of catastrophe yet to come."

Dominated by the specter of uncertainty and with my confidence lost in the fulfillment of promised securities," Miro told the council, I cannot continue in the leadership position."

Overpass Talks Held Today

Highway, Railroad Officials Tour Site

The date for the beginning of construction of the West State St. overpass was expected to be set today at a meeting of representatives of the Pennsylvania Railroad, the Division 11 office of the State Highway Department and city officials.

The group convened at the railroad tracks in late morning for an inspection tour of the site for the $673,480 overpass, then met in city hall to further deliberate details.

A spokesman for the State Highway Department said the second pre-construction session was scheduled because the Pennsylvania Railroad was not represented at the first meeting in March.

The group hopes to work out a work schedule with the railroad, according to Lyndon Mast, division construction engineer of the State Highway Department at New Philadelphia, who called the meeting. The project is now in the hands of the highway department, which is working out details in concordance with the railroad.

"We called the session to coordinate the thinking of our department the railroad and the city of Salem," Mast said.

Under law a railroad over which an overpass extends must share 10 per cent of the cost of the project. It was reported that the Pennsylvania Railroad has signed a contract indicating willingness to share this responsibility.

Representing Salem at the conference were Mayor Dean B. Cranmer, engineer F. S. Barckhoff, safety service director James Feiler, superintendent of utilities William Thompson and others.

From the State Highway Department besides Mast, were Clark Street, a division engineer, Russell Marshall, Robert Sedgman and Steve Kapple of the utilities department, and public relations man Richard Robinson.

Meanwhile, tests were being conducted by highway department workers to determine the degree of compaction of the two access strips now under construction. The compaction must reach a proper stage before paving can begin.

Historical Talk Given For Columbiana Group

COLUMBIANA — "Columbiana Since the Turn of the Century" was the theme of the program presented at the Historical Society of Columbiana and Fairfield Township meeting at Grace United Church of Christ Tuesday.

At the meeting, conducted by Roy Guy, president, announcement was made concerning plans for a tour to Beaver Creek State Park in the near future to view efforts made toward the restoration of the old Gaston Mill.

Members of the club presenting various aspects of Columbiana in the last 50 years were: early automobiles, Harry Eberhardt; local stores on Main St., Leo Holloway; local schools of 50 years ago, Mrs. Roy Weaver; and four oldest churches with Mrs. Charles Eesenwein representing Jerusalem Lutheran; Mrs. Virginia Felger, Presbyterian; Mrs. Harry Frankford, Methodist; and Willard Ferrall, United Church of Christ.

E. B. Dillon, who was instrumental in organizing the society 10 years ago, was appointed a board member, succeeding the late Miss Stella Kuegle, at a board meeting following the program.

A motion supporting the Gaston Mill restoration and the Columbiana County Forest and Park Council was passed.

Roy Guy will represent the society at the annual Ohio Association of Historical Societies meeting April 27 in Columbus.

GAIL OWENS, five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Owens, and Mrs. John Schnader of Lisbon, were guest singers when the Columbiana Square Dance Club met Saturday at Dixon School.

Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Marion Manley, Art Rudebeck of Leetonia.

The club will hold its next dance May 11.

Mrs. Jean Cappock, local Cancer chairman, has announced that tonight and Saturday will be "Tag Day" in the Columbiana shopping district.

Members of the freshman and sophomore Tri-Hi-Y units of Columbiana High School will be seeking donations in the downtown areas and a door-to-door canvass will be made April 28.

WINNERS IN the fifth and sixth week's race for model cars held at the Hobby and Cycle Shop on E. Park St. were Jerry Simpson of Southern Ave. and Bobby Dyke of S. Elm St.

Two more winners will be selected during the next two weeks and all weekly winners will then compete in the championship contest May 1.

Guest speakers at the Boat and Ski Club meeting Wednesday at Theron's social room were Commander Howard Beye and training officer Russell Campbell of the United States Coast Guard auxiliary in Youngstown.

Slides were shown and the officers spoke on the subject, "Safety Rules," concerning boat equipment necessary for safety and inspection.

Colored slides of the 1963 Rose Bowl parade were shown by Forrest Stark.

All members wishing to participate in the first cruise of the season to Mosquito Lake are asked to be at Firestone Park at noon Sunday.

Representing Columbiana at the meeting of Northeast Ohio Librarians in Alliance today were Leo Holloway, Mrs. Clyde Douglass and Mrs. James Moorehead, trustees, and Mrs. Virginia Felger and Mrs. Roy Weaver, librarians.

FORFEITS BOND IN LISBON

LISBON — Donald C. Hauenstein, 28, of Dalton forfeited a $15 bond Thursday in Mayor Dean Stockman's court for failing to stop for a stop light after he struck the rear of a car driven by Edwin S. Ward, 40, of W. Washington St.

Ward, going east on W. Lincoln Ave., stopped for a light at the square when Hauenstein crashed into his car, police said.

MULLINS OFFICE BUILDING GOING UP — With spring weather enhancing working conditions, construction of the new Mullins Manufacturing Corp. office building is moving along at a fast pace. Steel beams are being put into place in the two-story building, which is expected to be ready for occupation sometime in September. The building will house the executive administration, sales, general accounting and product development offices and will have a floor space of 23,000 square feet. The building is being erected at the corner of S. Ellsworth and Franklin, directly opposite the main plant.

HE NEEDS NO MEDAL HIS BAG IS HIS BADGE!

Johnny needs no medal. The very thought of receiving one would embarrass him. But, based on sheer accomplishment, who, more than he, deserves recognition?

You see, Johnny is a newspaperboy. By the skillful management of his leisure time and by directing his excess energy through constructive channels, he has developed his own business. He serves 45 regular customers. He has not had a service error in months. His "books" are always in order. He has learned the value of politeness and punctuality. He has developed poise, patience, and self-reliance. In short, he has become a good, solid citizen at an early age.

When Johnny comes your way again, take a second look. You'll know him, because his bag is his badge. It's worth a dozen medals!

Welch Decries Change In John Birch Society

BELMONT, Mass. (AP)—There is a new look about the operations of the John Birch Society. Nowhere is it more apparent than at the home office in a red brick building near Belmont Center, where Robert Welch, its founder, directs the affairs of a militantly conservative organization.

There is a sharp contrast with the status of the society just two years ago when a sudden surge of criticism reached even the floor of Congress, where there were demands that it be investigated. The society still occupies half of the ground floor of the building, along with the basement. But it has expanded its quarters, taking over the basement of an adjoining building.

There were 57 employees in 1961; there are 109 on the payroll now. Welch is a North Carolina farm boy who after college in his home state went to the U.S. Naval Academy for two years, and to Harvard Law School for another two. Then he went into the candy business and made his fortune in a nationally known firm which bore his name. He retired in 1957 to devote full time to organization of the John Birch Society.

Welch, who decries talk of a new look, says the society isn't a secret one, but holds secret only the number of members and their identities.

No secret, however, is his pride in the circulation of the society's monthly publication, American Opinion, which he places at more than 27,000.

Another development consists of stores across the country which sell the magazine, society pamphlets and books. Most are the exponents of communism, but there is more than liberal sprinkling of economics writings.

Welch said there are about 125 stores handling society and other publications. Some of them are operated by John Birch members, as "American Opinion Library" shops.

The others either are independent or are general bookstores which carry books on the society list.

The society magazine, American Opinion, comes out monthly but the July and August issues are combined. It has a managing editor, Scott Stanley, and a business manager, Richard Ober, and carries articles by many writers, including Westbrook Pegler, former newspaper columnist.

There also has been a change in the society's 32-page monthly bulletin which Welch writes and edits. Welch now takes a draft of each forthcoming issue to a meeting of the society's five-member executive board, usually in Chicago.

"We go over it for discussion and suggestions," Welch said in an interview at his office. The bulletin now carries a line on the front page—"approved by the executive committee."

Welch said that doesn't represent any change in policy.

Traffic Safety Committee Plans For Driver Clinic

LISBON — Plans for the drivers improvement clinic were again discussed at the regular meeting of the Columbiana County Traffic and Safety Committee Wednesday evening in village hall. Jud English, president, presided.

County Judge Luther Donbar of the County Court in Salem discussed plans which they hope to have in operation by June. It will consist of one night classes for four weeks. Instructors will be patrolmen, judges, insurance men and attorneys.

Several organizations will be asked to donate their services to keep records and cooperate with the safety committee in putting this project over.

The month of May was selected by the committee for holding traffic vehicle checks throughout the county. Lisbon Junior Chamber of Commerce will handle the check in Lisbon.

John Milbrodt of Canton, administrative staff member, Department of Highway Safety, was a guest of the local committee at their meeting. He is expected to attend as many of the local club meetings as possible.

The committee's next meeting will be May 15 in village hall.

Payroll Surgery In Ohio

On paper at least, the Rhodes administration's move to slash the state payroll seems to be paying off.

A report just handed to Rhodes' tight-fisted finance chief, Richard L. Krabach, by Personnel Director Wayne Ward shows that 4,268 state employees have been given the ax. The estimated saving to the state: $20 million.

Krabach expects to lop at least 2,800 more from the payroll by the end of the fiscal year, a move he says will save another $10 million. Recommendations by an industrial efficiency task force checking for lost motion in state departments may result in further layoffs.

We assume the firings are permanent.

Ward's report shows that 6,071 actually were dropped from the payroll from January through March but 1,808 were rehired as "essential" employees.

Rhodes has called for economy in government to shore up Ohio's sagging fiscal structure. Economy he's getting.

If the administration can find enough fat through March, but 1,808 were rehired as on the payrolls to warrant further trimming, it should do so.

But the trimming should be done with sharp surgical precision. Rhodes needs a lean and muscular force to carry out his ambitious program. Too much pressure on the economy knife could seriously injure both the patient and the program.

White House Expectations

Now that the well-kept secret is out, the nation can be expected to be as expectant about Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy's expectancy as she is.

The prospect of a third child in the White House and the first born to a first family in office since the days of Grover Cleveland 70 years ago does much to stir the imagination. Will the tie-breaker be on the side of 5-year-old Caroline or 2-year-old John Jr.?

And how about a name? President Kennedy's two younger brothers—Atty. Gen. Robert and Sen. Edward—also are in the waiting game. Will there be a top-level name-picking conference among the three and their wives, or will President Jack, by virtue of his office, have the right to reserve a couple names for exclusive use?

Certainly the White House Kennedys won't be pressed for space, or will they? What about the nursery? Will steps have to be taken to insure elbow room for John Jr.?

The very thought of the patter of more little feet in the Blue Room, the Lincoln Room, the Oval Room and all the other rooms is enough to make even the coldest heart melt.

As the day draws nearer, preparations such as you've never before seen will be made. The impending birth has far-reaching implications.

Press Secretary Pierre Salinger will let his cigar supply dwindle in the expectation of a new batch from the boss.

Photographers will be sharpening their baby photo techniques.

Comedians will put their writers to work on new First Family gags.

And through all the fol de rol, our charming First Lady will retain the superb grace and self-composure that have endeared her to peoples of many lands and which will help make this special event extra special.

Sure Death For Sitting Ducks

You can multiply these examples a thousand times and still not stretch the fact that laws screen out all the small fry and often let the big fish get away:

A hard-working stock farmer handicapped since boyhood by the loss of an arm is put up against it by a ruling he cannot be licensed to operate a motor vehicle unless the vehicle is specially equipped. He can buy a passenger car with special equipment but cannot afford a replacement for the heavy truck he uses in his business. Yet, the highways are filled with accident-prone drivers who have no trouble getting licenses simply because they have two arms. The stock farmer is an accident-free driver, as are most handicapped persons.

A conscientious citizen spends hours of his time making out a federal income return to the best of his ability, guided by his honesty and a desire to render unto Caesar's what is Caesar's. He does not believe he should hire a lawyer or a consultant to perform what to him is a personal duty of citizenship. In a spot check by IRS, he is fingered as a miscreant who should have paid $14.37 more. Yet the country is full of taxpayers with something to hide who hide it successfully and legally by hiring the best tax avoidance experts money can buy.

The original careful driver, Peter Prudence, makes a point of pride of never doing anything reckless on the highway, always observing the speed limit, giving the correct signals, never putting the other driver in a jam and aiming to live the rest of his life without an accident. So who gets picked up for going a few miles over the speed limit the day the big highway safety campaign begins? Peter Prudence. And while he's getting his ticket he notices the cars whizzing past at twice the speed limit? Not the law enforcer.

It's always the same way. Sitting ducks get shot first.

Now begins the test of strength between the outboard motor and the grass mower.

Those who complain most about teenagers probably have total inability to recall their own lives back farther than about the 21st year.

County Home Project

Columbiana County commissioners made it clear when they asked voters to sanction a seven-tenths mill levy last November that some of the funds would go for much-needed improvements at the county home.

The commissioners have now submitted an application to federal authorities to determine if it is possible to obtain matching money for a proposed 50-bed $400,000 hospital unit at the infirmary. If a federal grant is forthcoming under the government's accelerated works program, the county may be able to save some money—or at least get back some of the tax money which always gets to Washington but rarely seems to get back home.

The County Home Hospital for the care and treatment of the elderly men and women who must reside there is of paramount importance and we assume the commissioners will pursue this project and other much-needed improvements at the infirmary west of Lisbon.

The Dependables

The 161-pint contribution to the Red Cross Bloodmobile here yesterday is a tribute to the "dependables," those men and women who periodically roll up their sleeves to help their fellowman.

Although some newcomers showed up and there were 56 "walk-ins," the city's highest total to date was made possible by persons who visit the bloodmobile headquarters an average of every other visitation period. The life-saving fluid is so necessary but if others would share this responsibility, the regulars would have to show up only once a year.

Umpires

The beginning of another baseball season, let it not be overlooked, is the beginning of another spatter of abuse for umpires.

Without them, there could be no baseball, least of all professional baseball. They are reasonably well-paid and secure. But what they must put up with from loud-mouthed managers, coaches and players isn't really worth the money. Society owes them its blessing.

Together with long-suffering officials who take a beating from basketball coaches, baseball umpires make the patience of Job seem like a warmup.

In the certainty that none of the popoffs, showboats, ham actors and foul-mouths who make a living in baseball and abuse umpires for sport will say a kind word, here are some kind words for umpires.

Let them remember at all times that nothing which happens among spectators is worth taking to heart, because everything disgraceful that ever happened on earth has been backed by applauding spectators—burning witches, torturing victims of the Inquisition, slaughtering Christians for the amusement of Roman "fans" and murdering the Jewish minority in Germany. The spectators are always wrong.

Let them bear in mind when the going is tough and they are listening to profane and foul-mouthed lip from grown men dressed in little-boy play suits that psychologically these people didn't quite make it from adolescence to manhood, in spite of the fact that some of the worst are old gaffers whose feet hurt.

By Truman Twill

Umpires must give due attention when engaged in eyeball-to-eyeball encounters with yahoos who feel themselves slipping that the poor guy has been letting himself go, including his teeth, and no harm can come from being close to him in the open air.

They can take comfort from the certainty that pictures of this Shakespearean performance will reveal the ham in the baseball suit was poorly dressed for the part, because no one can look impressive in knickerbockers and a shirt without a collar. Hard as it is to take verbal abuse, the umpire has the advantage of wearing the proper costume.

And more than anything else, umpires should be philosophical about their role in the American way of life.

Someone must take abuse; that's the way it's done. The president of the United States must take abuse for running the country. The chief justice of the United States must take abuse for running the country. The chief justice of the United States must take it for running the courts. Members of Congress must bear the abuse of their fellowmen for making the laws.

Policemen must put up with insults from scofflaws. Teachers must try to ignore the ignoramuses who take out spite on them for inability to learn.

In America nobody gives credit to key people who take responsibility for running the game. Being a baseball umpire may be tough, but it's not unique. It's just one more place where decent people get it in the neck from popoffs and loudmouths.

U.N.'s Problem Is How to Collect Members' Dues

By HAROLD SHEEHAN

UNITED NATIONS — (NEA)—The U.N. today is in the position of a club in which most of the members owe last year's dues. But the local banks believe it will be around for a long time, so the club manages to raise a loan to keep its community projects going.

In the meantime, the club's finance committee is doing some agonized thinking. "Shall we hold a cake sale in the park on Saturday?" "Why not suspend delinquent members from voting privileges?" "Perhaps we shouldn't donate that fire truck to the town after all!"

ONE OF THE MEN saddled with the frustrating job of trying to balance the U.N. ledgers is William McCaw, 55, deputy controller.

"There is a serious money crisis around here," he lamented. "But thanks to the U.N. bonds which have been bought around the world, there is no danger that the electric company will turn our lights off for a while."

The bonds—sold only to governments—have brought in $135 million. However, they are just a form of loan, and the money must be paid back eventually—at 2 per cent interest.

McCaw feels comfortable that the housekeeping business of the U.N. is not in jeopardy. It costs the U.N. about $81 million yearly just to keep the shop running (compared to $146 million for the U. S. Congress). Payments to this "general fund" of the U.N. are coming in steadily. But there is danger that the U.N.'s peace-keeping operations will be curtailed.

It is for this activity that many nations close their doors to U.N.

bill collectors like McCaw.

THE COMMUNIST BLOC, for example, insists that the Congo forces—which cost about $10 million per month—are on the scene to uphold colonialism. The U.S.-S.R. owes $32 million on this account. It also refuses to pay the $14 million levied against it as its share of the expenses in the Middle East—where the U.N. troops are keeping Israelis and Arabs apart.

France has not paid a centime of its $14 million Congo assessment because it opposes unification of that nation.

The Republic of China on Formosa is so far in debt it may never climb out. Assessments are levied against Formosa consistent with its claim of representing 700 million residents of the Communist mainland.

Many Latin American countries, with severe economic problems of their own, have trouble raising even their small shares of the U.N. operating costs.

OTHER NATIONS — like Finland, with a mania for paying its debt—is square with the U.N. The United States, which has tossed in money gifts above its regular assessment, has carried about half the costs of the Congo operation. Bond sales have made up the difference—for the time being.

A 21-nation committee which pondered the financial plight broke up agreeing only that there was no agreement on what to do.

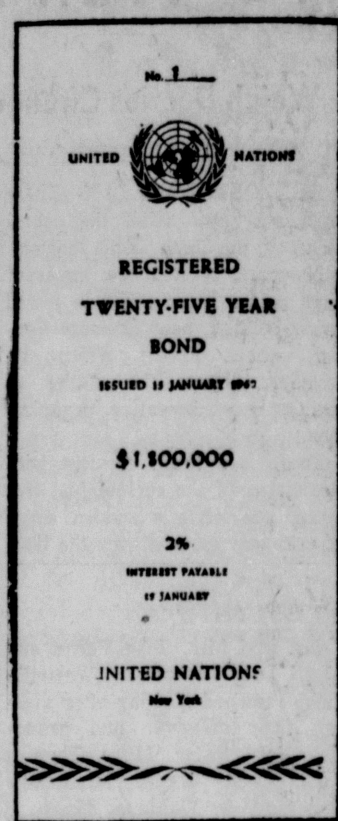

The 110-nation General Assembly now will convene in special session in mid-May for the single purpose of raising money. Some of the plans which have been suggested:

1. Reapportion peace-keeping costs, with less developed countries paying less, the five major powers, more. But the U.S. has stated that it will not pay another cent above its share unless other nations start chipping in. Besides, Russia and France are not now paying their share.

2. Deprive nonpaying nations of their votes in the U.N. A World Court ruling upheld the legality of this possible action. But it is doubtful that the U.N. would actually decide member states from its activities.

3. The "cake sale" plan. Some U.N. observers believe that the world body could tap a vast source of revenue by performing services for governments and individuals. It might, for example, provide travel services or operate international communications systems at a profit. Because of its unique international position it perhaps could operate a world-wide credit card service.

U.N. experts agree that what-

U.N. BOND — A "cake sale" may be necessary.

ever is decided must be decided soon—before the world body loses the momentum it has built up as a force to maintain peace around the globe.

Businessmen In Politics

By VICTOR RIESEL

A great many businessmen have decided to spend less time on the view from the 40th floor. They're going down into the political precincts of the land. They're starting the counter-offensive against the hard-hitting, vote-swinging, smoothly-gear-machinery of labor's Committee on Political Education (COPE).

They are now quietly hammering together something they will call Business - Industry Political Action Committee—BIPAC. BIPAC will be launched by the National Association of Manufacturers. This the NAM recently decided at its spring session in the Sheraton-Carlton, Washington, D.C.

NAM leaders, of course, want its 16,000 affiliated companies to back BIPAC. But once it has slid down the political runways, the NAM wants it to speed under its own power. The NAM is helping to set up BIPAC's national board. Then will come a drive for individual members.

THE NAM's leaders hope it will swell across the country enrolling hundreds of thousands who want political leadership by businessmen, or who think as businessmen do.

The association is sponsoring BIPAC as it sponsors a drive among its members for contributions to the Red Cross.

No one will say just who will head the board, or where the national headquarters will be located, or how many regional offices will be set up.

NAM people say they want no corporate members or money. They want individuals and action. Those who are working on the public launching of BIPAC want a non-partisan operation. They want a force which can go to congressmen and urge them not to worry if the AFL-CIO COPE says it will defeat them in the next election if they vote "wrong." BIPAC will support them.

Those in NAM have a healthy respect for labor's COPE. The unions' national political organization and its lobbyists active not only on the Hill in Washington, but in state capitals and city halls. Now the NAM leaders want a countering force.

IT SHOULD BE reported that they think back 20 years ago to a CIO convention. Then a men's clothing workers' leaders by name of Sidney Hillman took a convention resolution and turned it into a national political revolution.

Mr. Hillman launched the CIO-PAC. He went out to Minnesota and found an articulate personable pharmacist by name of Hubert Humphrey and helped launch him in politics.

In a year the PAC became one of the most powerful forces at the Democratic national nominating convention and almost stopped the naming of Harry S. Truman as vice presidential candidate.

When the AFL merged with the CIO the new national political machinery became known as the Committee on Political Education (COPE). Today it is consulted on the nomination of candidates all the way down the line.

NOW THE NAM wants to compete with COPE by sponsoring a national action committee which can produce pro-business voting strength at the polls.

"The envisioned organization," said the NAM leaders, "will be a completely independent group and no part of NAM or any other similar organization. Other business associations will be encouraged to endorse the movement and lend their support."

"Members will be recruited from among those millions of people throughout the country, regardless of political party affiliation, who believe in and wish to support constitutional government."

BIPAC will aim at the 1964 presidential and congressional elections—especially in areas where candidates antagonistic to business have been narrowly defeated. It will help many of those who are strongly fought by COPE. One insider pointed to a typical election battle—that of Rep. William Ayres, in Ohio's 14th District. He is a member of the House Education and Labor Committee.

OPPOSED TO AYRES when he ran in '62 were the following regional and union COPE Committees: Those of the Ohio State AFL-CIO (the Ohio Cope); the Macinists Non-Partisan Political League; the Meat Cutters Action Political League; the Chemical Workers; the United Rubber Workers; the Brewery Workers; the International Union of Electrical Workers; the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers; the United Steelworkers; the Textile Workers; the International Sheet Metal Workers; the Amalgamated Clothing Workers; the Ladies Garment Workers. These contributed at least $16,150.

Congressman Ayres was nonetheless re-elected. But now the businessmen want a political action committee in such areas to offset some of the strength the labor people can concentrate in and outside of the major political parties.

It will all make for some hot races—and hotter words. And the issues will be clearer.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I am a traveling man who leaves home on Monday and returns on Friday. This has been my routine for 12 years.

My wife knew this when I married her eight years ago and she said it was okay with her—that she never would beef about my being away. Her father worked on the railroad so she was accustomed to it.

She has kept her promise but now I think maybe I have other problems.

Last night I arrived home a few hours earlier than usual. The place was filled with cigar smoke. There was a cigar butt in the ash tray. My wife was washing her hair. When I asked about the smoke in the house and showed her the cigar butt she said, "I've always wanted to smoke a cigar... so tonight I tried one."

What do you think? — LOSING BY A NOSE.

Dear Nose: Any woman who can think THAT fast is going to be AWFULLY hard to out-smart.

In the absence of other evidence, accept her explanation—and keep your eyes open.

Contents Noted

Dear Ann: Our daughter received a party invitation in the mail yesterday. She said, "Isn't this cute?" and handed it to me. I was shocked to see a line, written across the bottom of the invitation, which read, "Bring your own bottle."

Marie is a college freshman—but only 17. The party, she argued, is being given by one of the "best-rated girls in town." Her father is a doctor and her mother is one of the society leaders. They live in a mansion with a three-car garage.

I told her I didn't care about their garage and that she wasn't going to the party. There was no arguing. Marie muttered "okay" and that was the end of it.

My husband says maybe I am wrong. He claims perhaps we should allow our daughter to be exposed to all sides of life and make her own choices. What is your opinion?—LOUISIANA PURCHASE.

Dear Purchase: I'm with you, mother. It's bad enough when 17-year-olds go to parties that somehow "turn out" to be drunken brawls. But to knowingly allow your teen-ager to attend a party to which she has been instructed to "bring her own bottle" would be stupid. Teen-age drinking is assuming dangerous proportions and it's getting worse. Parents who allow kids to make such choices are merely covering up for the fact that they have lost control.

All-Around Loser

Dear Ann: I am 19. He is 21. Jim is the nicest guy I ever met. I'm trying desperately not to fall head over teakettle but I am losing the battle.

The problem is this: Jim has another girl who keeps giving him the run-around. He has told me he's in love with this girl but he enjoys my company a great deal. I'd have to be pretty dumb not to realize that I am his second choice.

This girl treats Jim like dirt.

News Editors To Hear JFK

President May Talk On Steel Price, Cuba

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two lively ghosts of the administration's biggest crises — Cuba and steel prices — have slipped out of the closet again. And President Kennedy may explain today what he may do about them.

His forum: A meeting of the American Society of Newspaper Editors. The men who sometimes advise him in black and white on what he should and shouldn't do.

On steel, his audience of editors seems ready to advise him not to fight a round of increases in the price of steel.

Without exception, editors who were interviewed gave the opinion Kennedy should accept the wave of "selective" increases.

The White House announced that Kennedy would be ready to answer questions on steel in a question and answer session following his luncheon address at the society's annual meeting.

The fresh wave of controversy over Cuba, fanned Thursday night in Miami by exile leader Jose Miro Cardona, also is likely to prompt some pointed questions by the editors.

In quitting as president of the Cuban Revolutionary Council, Miro said Kennedy promised after the ill-fated Bay of Pigs invasion of April 1961 that there would be another invasion to topple Fidel Castro and then reneged.

His statement was generally met with cool silence here. The White House announced there would be no comment. The State Department again called the Cubans' account of things "a distortion."

The editors heard about Cuba Thursday from Sen. Kenneth B. Keating, R-N.Y., and Secretary of State Dean Rusk.

"A quick and successful Castro economy operation may no longer be possible," said Keating, "but this is no justification for pretending that sugar coated pills can make drastic surgery unnecessary."

Rusk repeated what he has said before, that "the Soviet military presence in Cuba is not to be accepted as a normal state of affairs. He could not, of course, foretell when or how the island's Communist rule will be broken.

Asked about the steel increases, the editors interviewed held unanimously that the new prices would not justify a mobilization of government pressure such as Kennedy used in 1952 to force the industry to rescind a general $6-a-ton increase.

"You can really sway, what with the height and the wind."

Fellow performers said Yetta had been nervous since the circus opened here Monday. They said her apparatus had been damaged last week in Florida and temporary repairs had been made.

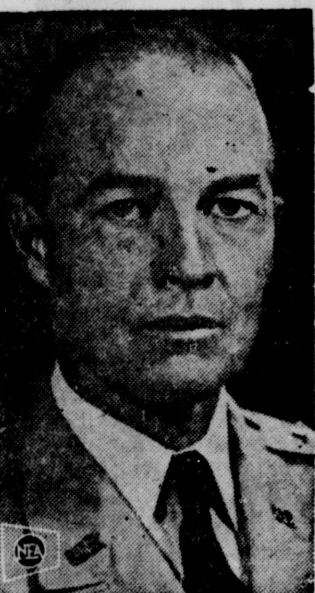

Yetta fell face upward until she hit a guide rope 15 feet above the sawdust floor.

The impact spun her around and she hit the floor spread-eagled and face downward. She never uttered a sound as she fell.

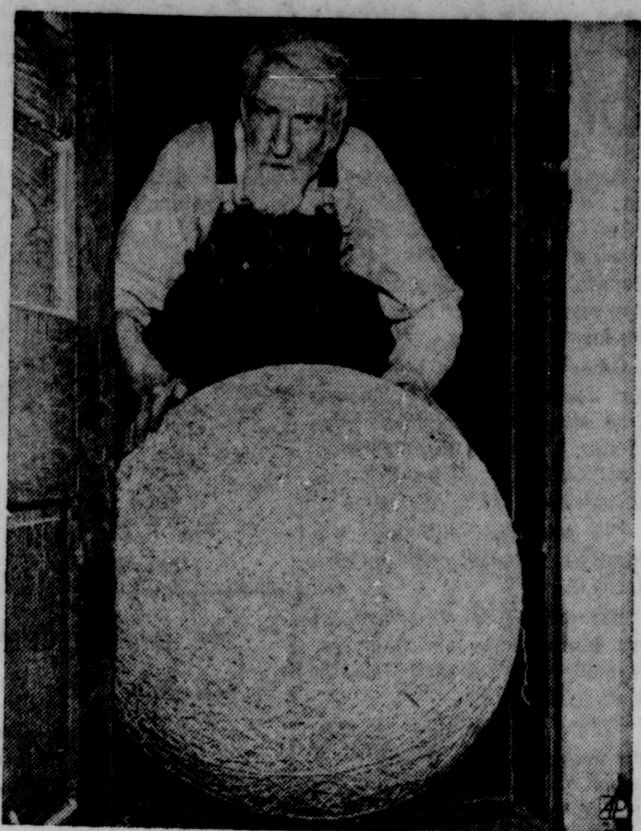

Among the first to reach the stricken woman was her husband, Arthur, who had rigged the ropes for her act and was standing about 50 feet from where she landed. He was given sedatives after the accident.

Circus performers said the dead woman was born Henrietta Kreis in Germany and that with her sister, Helen, she came to the United States and joined the Wallenda troupe. Helen married Karl Wallenda.

Arthur Grottoft is Karl's half brother. The Grottofts lived in Sarasota, Fla.

Navy Board Told Of Malfunctions On Atomic Sub

PORTSMOUTH, N.H. (AP) —

A Navy court of inquiry has received a list of more than a dozen malfunctions that plagued the nuclear submarine Thresher before she went on sea trials April 10 and was lost with 129 men aboard.

Lt. Raymond A. McCool, 33, of Dover, N.H., told the court Thursday the heavy load of corrective work robbed the crew of sufficient training in disaster procedures.

McCool emphasized however, that all the work was completed properly and the Thresher was in excellent condition when she put out to sea on her final voyage.

While the court continued its investigation of the tragedy at Portsmouth naval shipyard where the Thresher was built, an oceanographic vessel, Atlantis II, took on scientific equipment at Woods Hole, Mass., and prepared to return Saturday to its search for the remains of the submarine.

gents to coordinate higher education in Ohio. Senators named to the committee are Education Chairman Ross Perle, R-Allegheny; Collins, R-Lawrence, and Oliver Ocasek, D-Summit. House members are Majority Whip Harry R. Hurn, R - Huron; Education Chairman Robert Longworth, R-Carroll, and Wray Bevins, D-Pike.

The House went along unanimously with a Senate - approved bill sponsored by Sen. Oakley Collins, R-Lawrence, to help straighten out a situation in his district in connection with the selection of grand juries. It requires the names of all 15 members of a grand jury to be selected from a wheel containing at least 25 names.

The House passed and sent to the Senate bills to:

Give public and private water companies the right of eminent domain for pipelines, water towers and other facilities.

Permit suspension of village police chiefs for up to 60 days for disciplinary reasons. Present law permits dismissals but not suspensions.

Authorize the state to sell Miami and Erie Canal land in New Bremen, Auglaize County.

The base is laid on the 700-foot access on the north side of West State St. and on the 600 foot access on the south side. "We will be ready to pave as soon as soil conditions permit," a spokesman said.

The access roads must be completed before the construction of the 844-foot long bridge can begin. The total length of the project is 0.284 miles.

The continuous steel beam bridge will rise 23 feet above the tracks at its highest point. The roadway will have two lanes, 14 feet in width, and have five feet of sidewalk on each side.

Number of County Wards Increases

LISBON — The number of children in care of the County Welfare Department increased by six during March, according to the monthly report of Robert Bycroft, welfare director.

On March 1, the department had 169 children under its care. It added 31 during the month, and dismissed 25.

Beginning April 1, the department had 175 children on its rolls: 124 in boarding homes, 5 in free homes, 7 in the Kyes Memorial Home, 5 in institutions and 34 adoptions.

Greenford Teachers Named For New Term

The Greenford School Board Thursday night re-instated all its teachers for the 1963-64 school year and let a contract for the purchase of 228 lockers.

The low bid of $2,826 for the lockers, to be placed in the high school, was awarded to the Pen-co Products Company of Pittsburgh, Pa.

The board rehired the following teachers: Mrs. Angelina Eagan, Mrs. Marietta Beck, Mrs. Carrie Peterson, Mrs. Eva Haskins, Miss Patricia Hopkins, Mrs. Hilda Bender, Mrs. Lois Ake, Miss Faye McDoo, Gerald Suss, Al Carino, Morrison Poe and Mrs. Marjorie Richardson.

Mrs. Donald Beardsley was hired as school enumerator, and the board accepted the resignation of Mrs. Alice Wilson who is retiring at the end of the school year.

The group adopted the school calendar for 1963-64. Classes will begin Sept. 4; Christmas vacation will be held Dec. 20 to Jan. 2; Easter vacation, March 26-27; commencement, June 2 and school will close June 3.

A new flag pole will be placed in the center of the athletic field, north of the football field, the flag pole is to be purchased and erected by the Greenford Ruritan Club.

President Jose Maria Guido, reported ill, conferred at length with the military chiefs at his suburban home.

There has been speculation that the new government policy contemplates further curbs on the powerful Peronist vote. It is known that military circles are still split over the Peronist issue, basic cause of the 13-month-old Argentine crisis.

However, Rauch said that no further tightening of restrictions on supporters of former dictator Juan D. Peron was contemplated. The Peronists supposedly will be allowed a limited role in the June elections for president and congress.

answer session. The Wellsville clerical staff and Supt. Lowell B. Myers were commended for compiling a list of votes of county officials on bills pending.

William Ferrall, president of the Wellsville board, was chairman. The session lasted nearly two and a half hours. All Wellsville board members and school officials were introduced.

The presidents of each board in the county introduced their delegations, including Salem, Beaver Local, Fairfield-Waterford, Southern Local, United, Leontia, Columbiana, Lisbon, East Palestine, East Liverpool, Wellsville and the county board.

Atty. Donald Elliott of Rogers, a member of the county board, introduced the state representatives.

The Salem delegation offered its facilities for another joint session in two years. Refreshments followed in the high school cafeteria.

Two Minor Thefts Reported to Police

Two minor thefts were reported Thursday to city police.

Miss Nellie Glass, librarian at Salem Carnegie Library, said a sign designating library hours was taken from the front of the building. The columns and building front were also marked.

Mrs. Richard Treleven of 980 Jones Drive said someone stole a tire and wheel from her auto sometime in the past two weeks.

Deaths Funerals

George Pugh

George Pugh, 73, of 588½ E. State St. was dead on arrival at 10:04 p.m. Thursday at Salem City Hospital. Cause of death was complications following a three-month illness.

Born in East Palestine Feb. 18, 1890, the son of Noah and Harriet Riley Pugh, he had been employed as a jugglerman for 33 years by the Salem China Company. He was a member of the Sebring Methodist Church and the International Brotherhood of Potters.

His first wife, Mary Mueller Pugh, died in 1944, and he married Mrs. Dorothy Baird in 1946.

Besides his wife, Mr. Pugh leaves two sons, Eugene of Alliance and George Jr. of Hartford, Conn.; a daughter, Georgia Ann, of the home; two step-sons, Harry Baird of Appollo, Pa., and David Baird of the home; two sisters, Mrs. Emily Fitzgerald of Detroit, Mich., and Mrs. Lillian Miller of Sebring; three grandchildren; three stepgrandchildren, and two great-grandchildren.

A brother and sister preceded him in death.

Services will be at 3 p.m. Monday at the Stark Memorial, with Rev. William S. Longworth, pastor of the First Methodist Church, officiating. Burial will be in Alliance City Cemetery.

Friends may call at the Memorial from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m. Sunday.

Dan Weber

Dan Weber, 76, of 288 S. Broadway died of complications at 1:10 p.m. Thursday at Salem Central Clinic following an illness of several months.

Born May 20, 1886 in Agnew, Transylvania, he was the son of Michael and Sofia Waechter Weber. A retired tool hardener at the Mullins Manufacturing Corporation, he lived here 53 years and was a member of the Salem Saxon Lodge.

His wife, Mary, died in 1948. Surviving are two sons, Dan W. of Salem and Julius F. of Wheeling, W. Va.; one daughter, Mrs. Tony Dale of Salem; seven grandchildren; and one great-grandchild.

Funeral services will be held at 1:30 p.m. Monday at the Stark Memorial, with Rev. Richard D. Freseman officiating. Burial will be in Grandview Cemetery.

Friends may call at the memorial from 7 to 9 p.m. Sunday.

Lisbon Women Collect $877 In Cancer Drive

LISBON — A total of $877 was collected Thursday evening for the cancer fund in a canvass by members of the Business and Professional Women's Assn., according to Mrs. Evelyn Burson, chairman.

After completion of assigned territories, the solicitors reported their amounts to Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Hixcox at the cancer headquarters on Park Ave., and then went to the Lions cottage for refreshments provided by the Lions Club.

Mrs. Burson said cancer fund canisters placed in village business establishments have not been collected yet.

Sebring Council Advances Plans to Purchase Grader

SEBRING — Plans were advanced for the purchase of a street grader when Village Council met Thursday night in Council chambers in the Barclay Building.

A report was given by Street Supt. Kenneth Wilt and Councilmen Roger Johnston, Joseph Ludwig and James Birch who inspected road graders at Galion recently.

The street and finance committees will meet soon to prepare specifications preparatory to advertising for bids on the grader.

Council approved the installation of 48 new street lights following a recommendation by the utility committee.

An agreement with the National Sweeping Co. of Cleveland, which dispatches crews and equipment here thrice annually to sweep village streets, was renewed. The village pays the firm $225 yearly.

The fire, police and traffic committees will meet with the businessmen's group soon to discuss the latter's request that the parking meters be covered for a month's trial period. The businessmen allege the meters deter shoppers.

Announcement was made of a poster contest for students of elementary schools scheduled in conjunction with the annual village clean-up week which will start April 29.

Judges will be Mayor Henry Hutmacher, Councilman Johnston and Fred Gaunt, president of the which is sponsoring the contest. The posters will be displayed in store windows, and awards will be presented as follows: $5, first prize; $3, second, and ten $1 prizes.

Commissioners Buy Tractor, Plows

LISBON — Columbiana County commissioners Thursday purchased a tractor and plows for the Columbiana County Home farm from the Gause Equipment, Inc., Guilford Lake, on its low bid of $5,950.

The international Harvester McCormick Farm and Industrial Store of Youngstown submitted the only other bid of $6,600.

In other business, $300 slag grants were made to Fairfield and Middleton township trustees.

County sealer of weights and measures Lou Kramer of Columbiana was granted permission to attend a sealer of weights and measures meeting in Reynoldsburg May 7-9.

The commissioners' next meeting will be Monday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

DEAR HELOISE: When cleaning my refrigerator, I place a king size TV tray beside the refrigerator and load the food onto it from one shelf.

Remove the shelf, wash, replace it and reload the food back on the same shelf.

Use this method for each shelf in the refrigerator. This eliminates carrying a few articles at-a-time to a table counter etc. This is especially nice for refrigerators which have storage in the door.

Hints From

Heloise

By HELOISE CRUSE

DEAR HELOISE: I see you are concerned along with your readers about serving salads as crisp as served in restaurants.

I, as a restaurant owner, feel that the trouble is not with refrigerating the lettuce. It is my opinion that salt wilts lettuce in a very short time and makes it tough. Consequently, salt should not be used on a lettuce salad until immediately before the salad is served.

It also surprises me how anyone complain that they cannot soak, boil, or pressure cook dry beans and make them tender. Salt again!

Do not add the salt to dry beans until the beans are already tender, or you may STILL have "bullet" after hours of cooking.

Even strongly salted seasoning-meat will have somewhat the same effect. For additionally improved texture, of the bean, a small pinch of baking soda will help prevent skin-cracking and consequent mushiness.

Republican Women Told Of Privileges of Voting

Republican party candidates for city offices were introduced by Mrs. Carl Lindner who presided when members of the Republican Women's Club of Salem met Monday evening in their rooms in the Masonic Temple.

Other guests were Robert Bell and Joseph Savage of Steubenville, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brian of East Liverpool, Peter Johnson, Fred Cope and Ernest Whitacre of Salem.

"The Privilege of Voting" was the topic of a talk given by Mrs. Letha Astry.

She pointed out that "we are not penalized for not voting but in many countries such is not the case."

"In Mexico you are fined for not voting in the first election to which you are eligible and barred from voting in the next. In New Zealand, failure to vote brings a fine of $5.60 for the first offense and $12.60 for each succeeding failure.

"In Belgium you are not only fined but if you continue not to exercise your voting privilege your name is posted outside the city hall as a citizen who constantly shirks his civic duty. In Argentina you are jailed for 10 days following the third failure to vote."

Mrs. Lindner stated that the club will have a house-to-house canvass for new members April 29-30. Canvassers will meet at 9:30 a.m. both days for coffee and receive their lists.

A spaghetti supper will be held in the Masonic Temple at 6:30 p. m. May 1 for all Republicans and friends to honor the new members.

Mrs. Lindner, Mrs. Astry, Miss Mary Kleon and Mrs. Whitacre will attend the spring conference May 9-11 at the Netherland-Hilton Hotel in Cincinnati.

A rummage sale to be held in the near future was discussed. A lunch was served from a white covered table with a centerpiece of daffodils in a white porcelain container flanked with white tapers in brass holders. Members of the luncheon committee were Miss Kleon, chairman, Mrs. Dennis Callahan, Miss Susan Deming, Miss Mary Wolcott, Mrs. J. V. Fisher, Mrs. Nell Reich and Mrs. Cynthia Whitcomb.

It was decided to change the meeting date to the third Tuesday evening of each month, with the next meeting to be at 7:45 p. m. May 21 in the Masonic Temple.

'Cranberry Bog' Going All To Pieces

Probe Into Breaking Apart Of Floating Island Okayed

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A strange little floating island in Buckeye Lake, perhaps 25,000 years old but breaking apart in its old age, may be due for a new lease on life.

The island in the Licking County Lake is regarded as a botanical wonderland, Rep. Winston Churchill Allen, R-Licking, told the Ohio House Wednesday as he urged legislative sanction of a study which might prevent eventual disintegration of the ice-age relic.

The House unanimously approved Allen's proposal for a scientific study, at no cost to the state, as to why the island — generally known as Cranberry Bog or Cranberry Marsh—is starting to break up at the seams.

Allen told the House that scientists believe the bog was deposited at about its present location by the last glacier which visited Ohio. This particular chunk of moss and plant life must have come from the farthest north reaches of Canada, because only in that area are such plants known, Allen said.

After the bog rode the glacier for countless centuries, Allen said, it must have just settled down to be

CASTLE CLEANUP

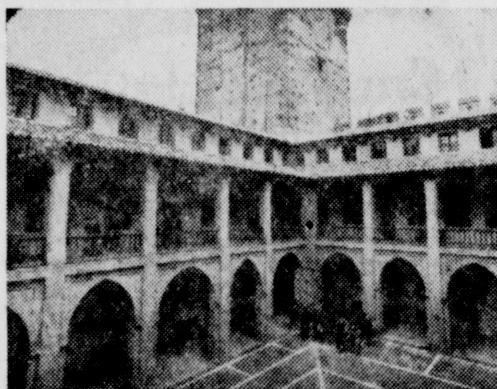

CASTLES IN SPAIN are undergoing a renovation through efforts of the government and a group called Friends of the Castles. In Jadraque, for example, residents of the village are reconstructing an old Moorish fortress which has commanded a hillside near Madrid for more than one thousand years. Donkeys are used to haul water and rocks and workmen use stones from the quarry which provided the original walls. There are some 2,500 castles and fortifications throughout the country. A national decree places all of them under the protection of Spain. Some castles now pay their own way. Enrique II, on the route from France to Portugal, serves as an inn near Ciudad Rodrigo. The Castle de la Mota at Medina del Campo, 70 miles northwest of Madrid, is a girls' school. The most famous castle, the fairytale-like Alcazar, houses the general military archives of Spain today. These castles are enduring monuments to the Spain of past days.

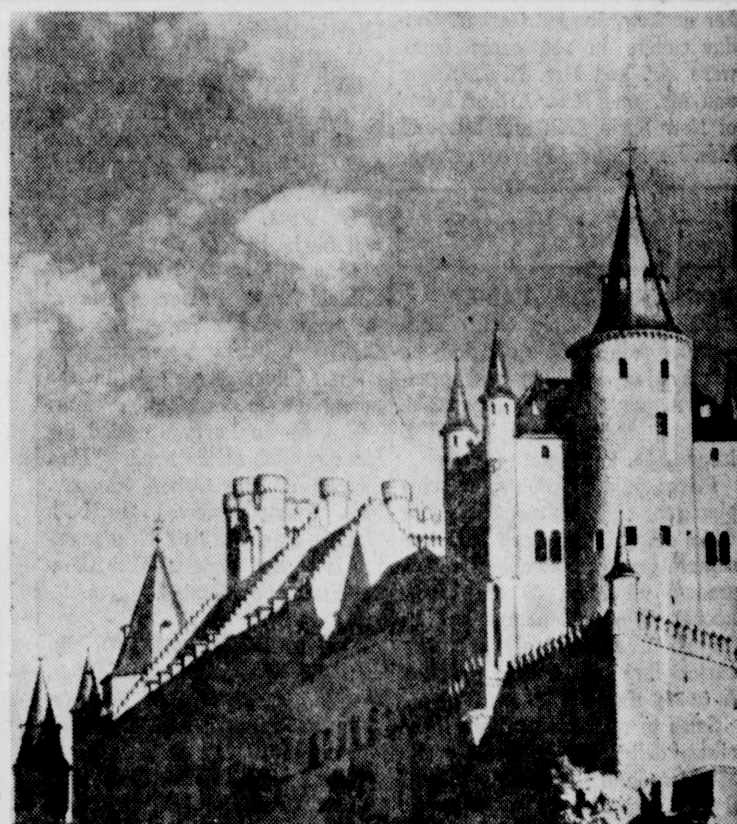

Renovation work like this—repairing towers—is going on all over Spain.

Castle of Iscar is on site of Roman fortress.

Social Events in Lisbon Area

By ETTA MAE ALEXANDER

Iva Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, met Wednesday evening at the Masonic Temple presided over by Mr. and Mrs. Ray Beers, worthy matron and patron.

The altar was draped in memory of Fred Levering of Fredricktown, a past grand patron of the Grand Chapter of Ohio.

Two candidates were initiated into the order.

A donation was approved for the American Cancer Society.

Tuesday, the local members will be guests of Homeworth chapter for "Friendship Night." This is the home chapter of the worthy grand patron of Grand Chapter of Ohio, John Liber, who will be the inspecting officer for the annual inspection of Iva Chapter, April 30.

The "Gypsy Festival Smorgasbord" will be held May 2, at the Methodist Church.

East Palestine chapter members will be guests of Iva Chapter for their friendship night, May 29.

Mrs. Guy Frantz was chairman of the lunch committee for the evening.

The next meeting will be May 15.

WAYNE HOME COUNCIL met for a coverdinner Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Wilbur McKarns of Millport Road. Co-host-

3 Balks Are Factor As Giants Trim Houston 6-3

Pirates Edge Cardinals 3-2

Braves Nip Phils;
Cubs Whip Dodgers

By MIKE RATHET

Associated Press Sports Writer

The problem plaguing pitchers and managers is trying to find some sort of yardstick for measuring a second in an attempt to halt the mushrooming number of balk calls disrupting action in National League games.

Balk calls may have been the decisive factor for the first time Thursday as Willie Mays was waved home from third base twice in San Francisco's 6-3 victory over Houston. In all, five balks were called in the game.

One balk was called at Milwaukee, where the Braves retained first place with their seventh straight victory, 6-5 over Philadelphia, and one was charged at St. Louis, where Pittsburgh edged the Cardinals 3-2. No balks were called as the Chicago Cubs whipped the Los Angeles Dodgers 5-1 in the only other game scheduled.

The three balks called on Houston pitchers in the game and the two against Giants' starter Jack Sanford, made a total of 11 for the three-game series in which Augie Donatelli's umpiring team strictly enforced the rule requiring a pitcher to pause a full second before delivery.

Including the two balks called in other games, 39 have been charged in less than two weeks of the season. Donatelli's crew has called 20. The major league record is 76, set in 1950. There still has not been a balk called in American League games.

The Giants led 3-2 going into the fifth inning. Mays opened with a double, moved to third on a balk call and eventually scored the decisive run on another balk call, both charged to reliever Russ Kemmerer. Mays then scored in the seventh on a balk call. George Brunet took the loss.

The Braves won it with a run in the ninth contributed by the Phillies' fifth error. Hank Aaron led off with a double off loser Ray Culp and came home when catcher Clay Dalrymple fired past third in an attempt to get Aaron on Norm Larker's bunt.

Bill Virdon drove in his second run with a ninth inning single, giving the Pirates and Don Schwall the victory over the Cardinals. Schwall had to leave after eight innings with stomach pains. ElRoy Face finished up.

The Cubs made the most of three Dodger errors, scoring three unearned runs and beating Don Drysdale, now 2-1, for the first time since 1960. Glen Hobbie, won it with ninth inning relief help from Don Elston.

Gold Bar Softball Team Plans Practice

The Gold Bar softball team of the Salem Class A League will hold its initial practice session at Sebring Park Sunday at 2 p.m.

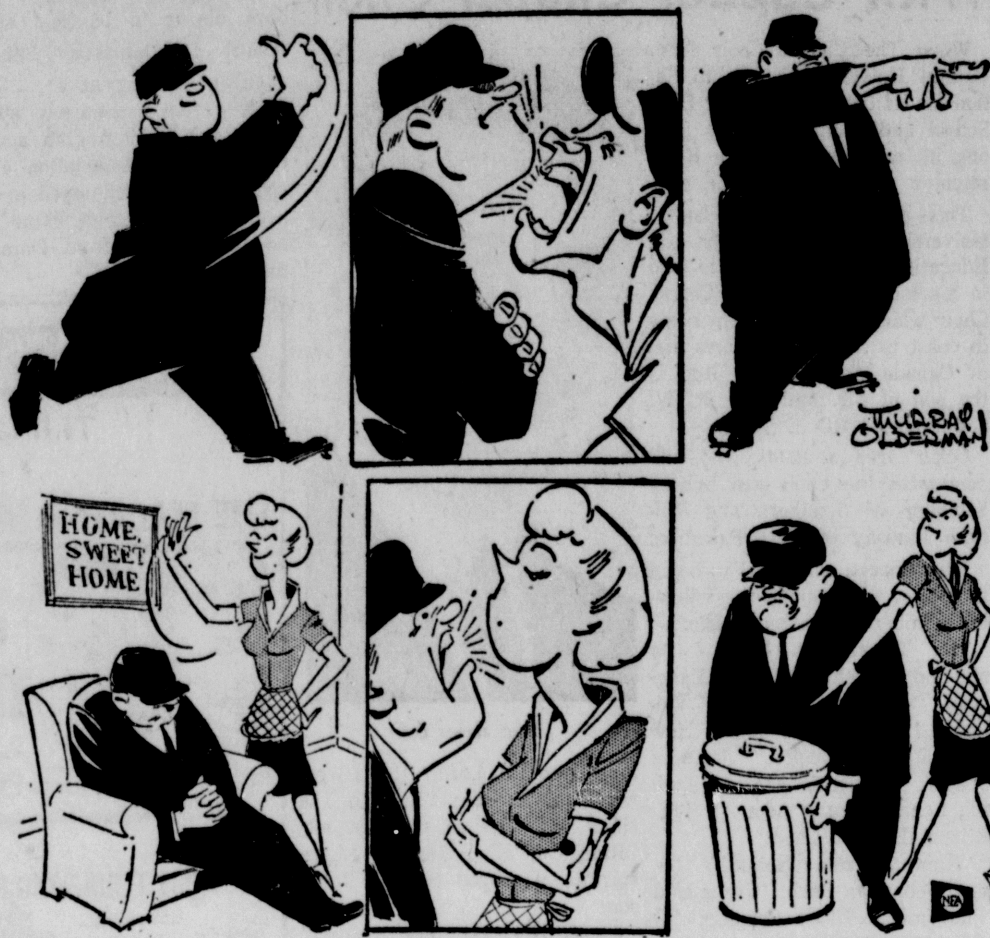

Members of last year's Salem Democrat team are to report for the session, in addition to anyone else who would like to try out for the squad.

Major League Stars

PITCHING—Ray Herbert White Sox, stopped Kansas City 3-0 on three hits, retiring 21 of 22 batters at one stretch.

BATTING—Willie Mays, Giants, collected double and two singles and scored two runs on talks in 63 victory over Houston.

YER OUT!

Herbert, Stigman Toss 3-Hitters

2 Similar Shutouts Are Pitched In AL

By WILL GRIMSLEY

Associated Press Sports Writer

The early returns are in on baseball's enlarged strike zone, and they come as no great surprise—the pitchers love it and the hitters are demanding a recount.

With the major league season less than two weeks old, the game—for a change—is showing some mercy for the long-oppressed men who earn their living on the mound. It's no longer a batters' paradise.

In the only two games played in the American League Thursday, pitchers carved out almost identical three-hit, 3-0 shutouts.

That was the margin of veteran Ray Herbert's victory for the Chicago White Sox over the Kansas City Athletics. Dick Stigman of the Minnesota Twins duplicated the feat in beating the Los Angeles Angels, also 3-0.

Program Will Feature 100-Lap Race

Top MARC Drivers Entered In Canfield Opener Saturday

Many of the top MARC drivers across the nation will be on hand Saturday night when Canfield Speedway opens the 1963 stock car racing season. A 100-lap feature will headline the five-event program over the quarter-mile track. The eMARC circuit is composed of 1961, 1962 and 1963 model cars.

Saturday's race at Canfield will be the first stop in the North for MARC, which has traveled through Texas, Georgia, Alabama, Tennessee and Kentucky.

Iggy Katona of Willis, Mich., has taken the early point lead in MARC. He has compiled 615 points with his 1963 Ford, holding a slim 10-point edge over Jack Bowsher of Springfield, Ohio, who also pilots a 1963 Ford.

Bobby Watson of Louisville, Ky., has 405 with his 1963 Ford; Jim Cushman of Columbus 370 with a 1963 Plymouth; Dick Freeman of Dayton 330 in a 1963 Mercury; Dick Dunlevy of Dayton 280 in a 1963 Ford; Danny Byrd of Detroit 260 in a 1962 Chevrolet and Em Rubush of Dayton 255 in a 1961 Chevrolet.

Herbert, sidelined for nine days with a stiff arm after being knocked out in his opener, came back powerfully. He served line drive singles to the first two men he faced—Dick Howser and Joe Tartabull—and then settled down to retire 21 of the next 22 men.

Gino Cimoli got the only other safety, a single in the eighth. Dave Nicholson's first home run of the year was Chicago's big blow against loser Ed Rakow.

Stigman didn't permit a Los Angeles runner to get beyond second base and he allowed only one extra-base hit—a double by Jim Fregosi in the fifth.

Earl Battey opened the Twins' scoring with a home run off starter Ken McBride in the second. The Minnesota added two more in the fifth.

The Ann Arbor, Chicago and Ohio track clubs will be here, too. High school entrants from outside Columbus include Akron North, Ashland, Berea, Cleveland East and John Marshall, Dayton Roosevelt, Euclid, Kettering Fairmont, Mansfield, Marion, Mayfield Heights, Shaker Heights, Springfield South and Huntington (W. Va.) East.

Six field events and 13 running competitions make up the collegiate program.

950 Athletes Entered In Ohio Relays

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—About 950 speedsters from 20 colleges, 25 high schools and 3 track clubs will compete Saturday in the historic Ohio State University Relays launched in 1924.

All the Big Ten schools except Minnesota, Iowa and Wisconsin will be represented, along with talented stars from Baldwin-Wallace, Bowling Green, Butler, Capital, Central State, Chicago, Denison, Kentucky, Miami, Notre Dame, Ohio University, Pittsburgh and Western Michigan.

$20,000 In Purses To Be Awarded

77th Annual State Trapshoot Slated At Vandalia June 12-16

By FRITZ HOWELL

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's 77th annual state trapshoot, scheduled June 12-16 at Vandalia, figures to be the most star-spangled in history.

Guaranteed purses have been hoisted to $20,000, plus $1750 in silver trophies and $1200 for entertaining the feminine contingent.

For years the Buckeye barrage has dwarfed those in other states—and the domination is due to continue. A year ago $32,000 clay targets were thrown during the five-day classic, and Atty. Gen. William Saxbe—president of the Ohio State Trapshooters Association—expects the figure to climb to $75,000 this year.

901 Entered In 1962
The 1962 handicap race attracted 901 entrants from 17 states, making it the biggest trap shoot not a part of the Grand American. Previous handicap high for the state handicap was 633 at Findlay in 1960. The 200 target 16-yard race drew 574 shooters, far over the previous state record of 347 set by Wisconsin in 1961.

Prior to the big Vandalia state shoot, four Ohio zone competitions are on tap to name champions and five-man team representatives for special events in the Ohio meet.

The zone affairs, where the programs will consist of 100 targets at 16 yards, 100 at handicaps and 25 pairs of doubles, are slated May 19 at Steubenville and Middletown, and May 26 at Pataaskala and Bellevue. Practice will be permitted on the title traps the day before the competitions.

Re-Loaded Shells Are Ok

Re-loaded shells will be permitted in the state shoot, a shift from the Grand American rules which allow only factory-manufactured ammunition in the Western Hemisphere classic. The shooters will use 32 traps during the last two days at the state shoot, assuring a before-dark finish.

The 1962 races drew competitors from Ohio, Connecticut, Florida, Indiana, Illinois, Kansas, Kentucky, Maryland, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, New Jersey, New Mexico, New York, Ontario, Pennsylvania, Tennessee and Wisconsin. All are expected to be represented again.

The Grand American Trapshoot biggest in the world with an attendance expected to exceed 2,400 from all parts of the continent, is scheduled at Vandalia Aug. 16-24.

While discussing sales, Shelby said that plans are under way to double production and to set up a nationwide sales and service organization.

The 289 cubic inch engine is the standard production engine in Ford's wonderful new 1963 Galaxie models. For a thrill in driving pleasure stop in today and test drive the wonderful new 1963 Fords at Bud Shaffer Ford, Inc., N. Ellsworth at city limits, Salem, O.

Says Ford Mill Will Be Power For Cobra

NEW YORK — Carroll Shelby, here to attend the opening of the International Automobile Show, revealed Friday that the high-performance, 289 cubic inch Ford Fairlane engine has become standard equipment in all his Cobra sports cars.

The former national sports car racing champion, who now builds the Ford-powered Cobra, also told newsmen that he intends to enter a team of Cobras in all eight races counting for the 1963 United States Manufacturers' Championship. Drivers of his cars, Shelby said, will be Bob Holbert, Ken Miles, Dave McDonald, and when their Grand Prix commitments allow, Phil Hill and Dan Gurney. Hill and Miles, along with fellow Californian Lew Spencer, drove the class-winning Cobra at the recent 12-hour endurance race in Sebring, Florida.

According to Shelby, the excellent showing of Ford's 289 cubic inch engine at Sebring resulted in his decision to use it from now on in place of the original engine of 260 cubic inches.

Shelby also revealed that this new engine will be available in horsepower ratings from 271 for the street car all the way up to 385 for the racing car.

In answer to questions about Cobra entries at the 24-hour race at Le Mans, France, in June, Shelby confirmed that Stirling Moss would be team manager for three and possibly four Cobras. These cars will be privately entered by the AC Car Company of England, builders of the Cobra's body and frame, by Pittsburgh Cobra dealer Ed Huges, and by England's Peter Jopp who drove the class-winning Ford Falcon in the Monte Carlo Rallye.

While discussing sales, Shelby said that plans are under way to double production and to set up a nationwide sales and service organization.

The 289 cubic inch engine is the standard production engine in Ford's wonderful new 1963 Galaxie models. For a thrill in driving pleasure stop in today and test drive the wonderful new 1963 Fords at Bud Shaffer Ford, Inc., N. Ellsworth at city limits, Salem, O.

Aaron's 64 Leads Houston Classic

By MAX B. SKELTON
HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Tommy Aaron, a young newcomer, held a one stroke lead over Jack Nicklaus in a tight field going into the second round of the $50,000 Houston Golf Classic today.

Nine others, including Gary Player, were four strokes off the pace set by the 1960 Western Amateur champion.

Aaron, a Gainesville, Ga., native who now calls Gainesville, Fla. his home, took the lead Thursday with six birdies for a 6-under-par 64 in the first round.

His 31-64 tied the first round record set by Jimmy Clark in 1951. Nicklaus' 30-65 for the

Toronto Maple Leafs Capture Stanley Cup

By JERRY GREEN
TORONTO (AP)—The Toronto Maple Leafs, so mighty they can score while outnumbered and win easily with their top goal-getter shackled, have started a new Stanley Cup dynasty in the National Hockey League.

Toronto roared through the playoffs with only two losses in 10 games without a single goal by Frank Mahovlich, a 36-goal man in the regular season.

The Leafs mixed their power with a little bit of luck Thursday night for a 3-1 victory over the Detroit Red Wings in the clinching game. Toronto won the coveted trophy for the second straight year by romping through the best-of-7 final series 4-1. The Leafs earlier eliminated Montreal 4-1 in the semifinals.

Dave Keon scored twice in the clincher while Toronto played shorthanded with a man in the penalty box. And Eddie Shack put in the deciding goal and didn't even know it.

Shack's goal came in the final seven minutes and broke a 1-1 tie. The play that set $2,000 for each Leaf started on Kent Douglas' shot from the blue line. The puck hit two players before reaching Shack.

He looked around puzzled when his teammates raised their sticks high as the red light flashed.

Oh, I don't know how it happened," said Shack, guzzling a beer while his victorious teammates sipped champagne in the boisterous Leaf locker room. I guess I felt it hit the middle of my stick at that."

Damascus Boys To Sign Up For Baseball League

DAMASCUS—Hoy Smith, president of the Damascus Hot Stove League, announced today that registration for boys eight to 18 years of age will be held Saturday at the Damascus Community Center pavilion from 9 a.m. to noon.

Registration forms will be available in all West Branch schools and at the Community Center Saturday. An insurance fee of $2 per boy will be collected at this time.

This year's boundaries have been set up. Damascus will have boys east of Ellet Rd. and south of Rt. 62 in the West Branch School System with the exception of the Homeworth and Georgetown area.

All boys who played with Homeworth and Georgetown last year should play with them this year. Their registration is also set for Saturday.

Sebring final registration day is Saturday from 1 to 4 p.m. at the Sebring Fire Station. The boundaries are north of Rt. 62 and west of Ellet Rd. including the Sebring, Beloit, Maple Ridge and North Benton areas.

Damascus League still needs managers, coaches and umpires.

Local Bowling

Earl Miller, who had his troubles in the Elks State Bowling Tournament with a 387 series, rebounded with a 588 three-game set to lead the Parker Chevrolet No. 2 team into fourth place in the Open House Tournament at Timberlanes.

Malina Insurance of Cleveland is number one with a 3,112 series. The event still has three weeks to go, according to tourney director "Soph" Paparadis.

Parker Chevrolet moved into fourth place with a 3,052 three-game set. Miller had a 146 - 237 - 205 series. Irv Painchad chipped in with a 204-190-155-549, while teammates Gus Paparadis finished with 158-193-157-508; Biggie Wilson, 173-178-159-510; and Al Parker 180-133-154-447.

Other teams in the top 10 include Nemos Pennzoil of Bellaire, 3,112; Waggaman's Sohio Service of Youngstown, 3,074; Truscon Joist of Girard, 3,048; Culligan of Beaver Falls, 3,047; Paul's Mobil No. 2 of Ellwood City, Pa., 3,046; City Cab Cadillac's of Salem, 3,042; Millers Floor and Wall Tile of Youngstown, 3,034; and Sebring Recreation, 3,016.

SALEM TOOL of Jewett has rolled into first place in the Saxon Lanes five-man tournament with a 3,301 series. In second place is Ellwood City, with a 3,204 three - game set. Wellsville Feed has jumped into third place with a 3,148 series.

Fred Lewis has posted the high single game 257 for the event so far and Mickey Vogt of Canton has the top individual series 669. Tournament manager Joe Vogelhuber points out that there are three weeks still remaining in the pin event and any teams that wish to enter should contact him at Saxon Lanes.

JOHN PRIDON of Salem fired a sizzling 706 series as Shorty's Cab trimmed Franklin Market 2,926-2,866 for the Saxon Classic A League championship Wednesday.

The two teams competed in a roll-off for the title, with Shorty's coming out on top 3-1. The champs won first half laurels, and Franklin Market pinned down the second half crown.

Pridon fashioned the loop's highest series of the season with games of 213-256-237. He also finished with a 194 average. Dick Hahn of Franklin had the league high average for the year at 195. Jerry Colaizzi of Shorty's was third with 193.

In the roll-off Orrie Snyder of Shorty's had a 188-224-190-602 series. He was followed by Jerry Colaizzi, 188-178-211-577; Jim Jackson, 195-168-166 and Rudy Mogart, 180-166-166-512.

Ray Thompson paced Franklin Market with 213-182-220-615. Paul Scullion was second with 218-180-194-592, and he was followed by Harold Wuchter, 176-185-209-570; Dick Hahn, 196-178-179-544 and Paul Shone, 139-194-202.

HARRY SPEAR of Washingtonville rolled a triplicate 179 in the tough Saxon Classic A League recently. He finished with a 537 series.

For his accomplishment, Spear will receive a triplicate club award from the American Bowling Congress.

The Classic A League will hold its annual banquet at Saxon Club rooms April 24. During the dinner election of officers for the 1963-64 season will be held and league trophies and prize money will be awarded.

The loop hopes to expand to 12 teams next season. Anyone interested in entering the league should contact William J. Pauline for early reservations.

PLANS FOR A children's teams and mixed doubles leagues, to be bowled Saturday mornings during the summer vacation, will be discussed at an organization meeting at Timberlanes April 27.

Timberlanes proprietor "Soph" Paparadis says "there is a great deal of interest in the summer program and we are expecting quite a few children to compete. He plans to have the mixed doubles league to start at 9 a.m., with the team event scheduled to begin at 11.

A word from THERON
at the Country Store

Let's put some power in our law enforcement. I do not believe anyone should be fined for moving traffic violations. Too many people when they pay a fine feel they pay for the privilege of breaking the law. You have heard of people after being fined have put down an equal amount and said they are leaving as fast as they came in.

If a warning isn't enough to correct the person's wrong doing, they should either get a license suspension or a jail sentence. People would have more respect for laws our accident rate would go down.

Women TV Viewers Enjoy Drama Most

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—In the good old days of television the presumption was that programs starring Loretta Young, Barbara Stanwyck, June Allyson, Jane Wyman and other female stars interested primarily the ladies of the audience.

When male critics want to administer a coup de grace to any effort, they invariably call it a "soap opera."

One of the enterprising ratings services recently made a special survey among women viewers and reported (in the current issue of the trade magazine Broadcasting) the evening network programs most appealing to feminine viewers.

Not very surprisingly, the survey found women enjoy all the medical shows, with "Ben Casey" and "Dr. Kildare" in the top spots and "The Nurses" and "11th Hour" not far down on the list.

But all of the programs dearest to feminine hearts are drama—not a comedy effort in the batch: "The Defenders," "Dick Powell Theatre," "Going My Way," even "Lassie."

There is just one western in the top 10 list: "Empire," a contemporary show and not really a classic western. Its plot lines often are loaded with soap opera dramatic clichés.

ABC plans a series of hour-long science fiction tales on Monday nights next season called "The Outer Limits." The series originally was called "Please Stand By." Science fiction tales, for some reason, have never done very well in network television, but maybe, with all the space shots, audiences are better prepared for them than they were in the days of, for instance, "The Man and the Challenge."

Recommended weekend viewing: Tonight—"Here's Edie," ABC, 9-9:30 (Eastern Saturday Time)—Another in Edie Adams' series of short musical specials.

Saturday—"The Defenders," CBS, 8:30-9:30 p.m.—script about jurors by Reginald Rose.

Sunday—"Meet the Press," NBC, 6-6:30 p.m.—Astronaut John H. Glenn Jr. is the guest; "Prisoner at Large," NBC, 10-11—Documentary on a real relationship between a paroled convict and his parole officer.

10—Ch. 3, Jack Paar: Milton Berle, Liberace, Helen Traubel and Wally Cox are guests.

11:25—Ch. 8, Movie: Steve Brodie and Sandra Francis in the 1958 release, "Spy in the Sky."

LISBON — Ray W. Bosh, 43, of Hiram forfeited a $15 bond Thursday in County Judge James L. MacDonald's court when he failed to appear for a hearing on a charge of speeding. He was cited by the State Highway Patrol.

GETS BOMB THREAT

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (AP) — Operations of the First National Bank were interrupted Thursday for three hours by a bomb threat telephone call made by a woman.

All bank employees and other occupants of the building filed out while police and FBI agents searched for the bomb. No bomb was found.

Summitville Council Purchases Slag

SUMMITVILLE — Routine business was transacted when the Summitville Council met at the fire hall Thursday with Mayor Ernest Phillips presiding.

Slag for the summer re-surfacing program was ordered and will be delivered next month. Everett Hays was hired to mow grass in the Village Park and along the roadways of the village.

Bills totaling $179 were approved to be paid.

Councilman Howard Speirs was absent and William Swinger was excused.

Next meeting will be May 16.

Man Jailed for Illegal Use of Phone Card

LISBON — A Wellsville man was sentenced to the county jail Thursday by County Judge James L. MacDonald for fraudulent use of an Ohio Bell Telephone Co. Credit Card.

George Nicholas, 32, was sentenced to 90 days in jail. He also must pay costs of $27.15 and make restitution of $101.98 to the telephone company.

He pleaded guilty to using the American Cancer Society's phone credit number to make personal calls. He was cited by Wellsville police.

This kitchen "grew" in a savings book!

This gleaming, modern kitchen began as an IDEA in the mind of a home-maker. It didn't really begin to take form, though, until somebody DID something about it! What was done was to open a savings account with the specific objective of turning this idea into a reality. With each regularly - scheduled deposit (plus dividends) the totals kept growing. The kitchen, too, "grew up" . . . from just an idea to the real thing!

If you, too, have an IDEA that you'd like to turn into a fact, start saving for it here. You can't miss!
